

Hi there,

Welcome back to another school Year!

I'm a mum of three kids and I know how hard it is to find new ways of raising money for your school P&C. Fancy fundraising and getting some lovely creative educational products while you do it?

They make great birthday party gifts or holiday activity treats.

Hop online and have a look at my range and see if you would like to sell them to your school community. I will donate 25% of all sales value to your P&C fund.

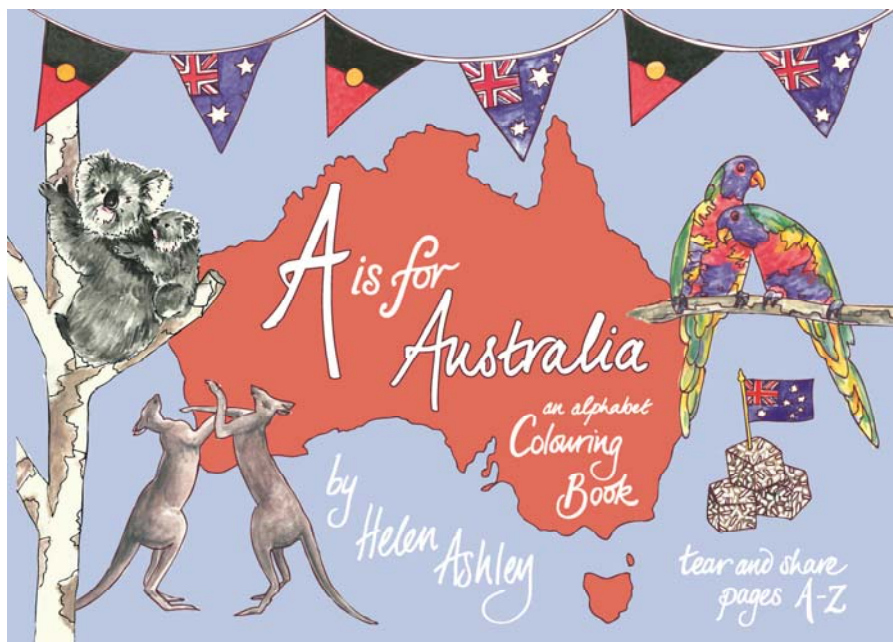

All ColourMeArt products are educational and fun and they are 100% Australian made.

Brand new to my product range, is my first tear and share A is for Australia alphabet colouring book. Check it out in the shop at www.colourmeart.com
